

Frances the Firefly: Retell her story

Read the middle part of the story again and fill in the missing words.

"I've got something exciting to show you Frances," said _____.
"Come with me."
He led her to his hiding place, pushed a leaf to one side and pointed. It was a box of _____!

Frances wanted to be a grown up firefly so with Charlie's help she _____ the match.

Frances flew up and _____. "Just wait 'til everyone sees what I can do," she thought. But she was too _____ with her lovely bright light to notice that the flame was growing larger and _____. It came creeping up the _____ until it reached her _____ and burned them.